

Week 8

Make a complete eat and avoid list from all of the information that you have been given to date. All food allergies take priority over any other food lists. In other words, if you're allergic to it, don't eat it. If you have any contradictions or questions be sure to bring them in with you so we can clear them up.